

VETERINARY
Imaging Solution

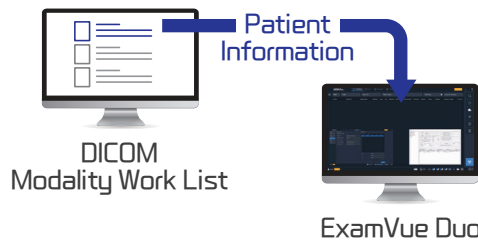

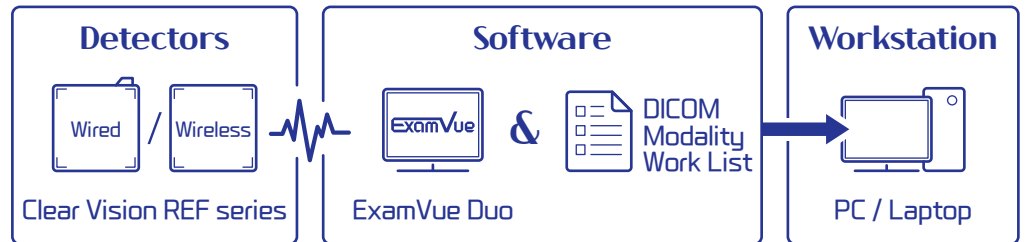

Digital Upgrade

The core of JPI's veterinary imaging solution is ExamVue Duo, which offers superior image quality, intuitive workflow, and specialized analytical tools. All these features were designed with one thing in mind, providing the best imaging solution to an end user at a reasonable cost.

Digital Upgrade Package

Not only JPI's veterinary digital upgrade solution is equipped with specialized analytical tools, it also comes with our very own Modality Work List, which could help to improve the efficiency of workflow for everyone.

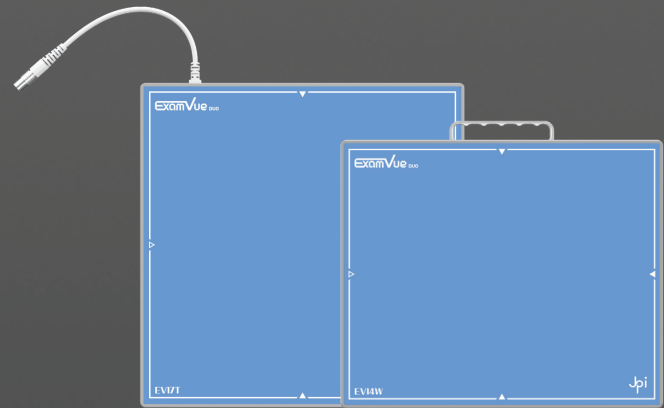

Veterinary Imaging Solution

Clear Vision REF series

Clear Vision REF series is consisted of wide range (both in size and connectivity), allowing the flexibility needed for different environments.

We emphasize the importance of dose saving by offering only CsI panels and highly accurate AED (automatic exposure detection).

*Please contact your regional sales manager for further inquiry.

ExamVue Duo Software

ExamVue Duo is a self-developed acquisition software equipped with an intuitive GUI, basic and professional measurement tools, and an optimized image processing algorithm. It also comes with a guide for proper image acquisition process which cloud enhance user's experience.

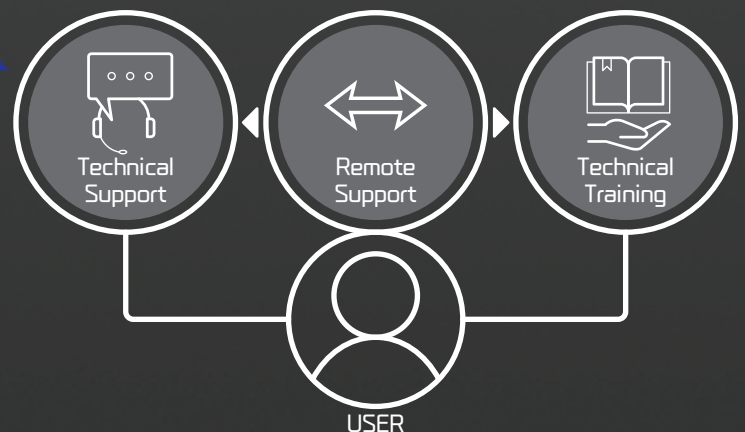

ExamVue Duo is fully integrated with wide range of generators and flat panel detectors and comes with tools that helps to improve the workflow of the imaging system, allowing its users to be more efficient and flexible.

*Specialized equine analytical tools available upon request.

Customer Service

Our outstanding customer support team is consisted of engineers with experience and knowledge. Also, we supply remote training session for our valued partners so they may enhance their understanding and supply the best service possible to end users.

JPI Healthcare Co., Ltd.

608-ho, 28, Digital-ro 33-gil, Guro-gu, 08377, Seoul, Korea

global@jpi.co.kr

www.jpi-korea.com